

THE PONDEROSA HOUSE

ARIZONA BORN FOOD

Nestled in the heart of Old Town Scottsdale, Ponderosa House invites you to slow down, gather around, and share a meal that feels just like home.

Our kitchen celebrates the rich, vibrant tapestry of the Southwest, blending the cozy nostalgia of American comfort classics with the bold, sun-drenched spirit of Sonoran Mexican traditions. Every dish is crafted from scratch using ingredients that tell the story of our desert landscape.

At Ponderosa House, we believe that the best moments in life happen around a shared table. That is why all of our meals are served family-style, designed to be passed, shared, and savored together.

Whether you are dining with blood relatives or your chosen family, our table is yours. Come pull up a chair, raise a glass, and share a story in a space where everyone is always welcome.
